One Heart, One Mind

The Easter sacraments of initiation have called us to become a community of God's people. The program for this "community of believers is to be of one heart and one mind."

The Second Reading deals with the one heart part of being community: loving God and loving God's children. The Gospel deals with the one mind part of being community: belief in Jesus even among those who have not seen.

What is such a community like? Look at the Reading from Acts. The early church of Jerusalem respected the apostles and their witness to the resurrection, and along with that they shared their possessions.

Voluntarily surrendering their right to private ownership, they created a situation in which no one among them was needy. All members of the community had what they needed, or if they didn't have it, they got it from the community.

The passage from Acts does not attempt to impose on us a specific economic system. Rather, it tells us that whatever economic system the followers of Jesus Christ espouse, it had better be a system that provides for the needs of all the people. A well-ordered human society requires that men recognize and observe their mutual rights and duties. It also demands that each contribute generously to the establishment of a civic order in which rights and duties are progressively more sincerely and effectively acknowledged and fulfilled.

It is not enough, for example, to acknowledge and respect every man's right to the means of subsistence. One must also strive to insure that he actually has enough in the way of food and nourishment.

Pope John XXIII, Pacem in Terris, 1963: 31-32

Making peace between God and the world was Jesus' Easter gift to us. Do we have a part in helping spread that peace?

Peace to the whole world, torn apart by violence linked to drug trafficking and by the iniquitous exploitation of natural resources! Peace to this our Earth! May the risen Jesus bring comfort to the victims of natural disasters and make us responsible guardians of creation.

Congratulations

The Enneagram is an ancient wisdom tool that is over 4,500 years old, believed to come out of the Sufi tradition. Composed of a wheel of 9 personality types, it can enable us to get a deeper insight into how we see ourselves, others and the world in which we live. It has been tested through the centuries and has proven to be an incredible way to help us to grow on our personal and spiritual journey. Identifying our personality type can offer ways for us to see ourselves in a new way.

The Doubter Speaks Today

by Dr. Ralph F. Wilson

Thomas would speak to doubters today, to those of us who have seen our hopes and dreams destroyed. Doubting Thomas would tell his story of how Jesus' life had intercepted his own. He would tell us of his fears and his doubts. And then, with a radiant, joyful face, St. Thomas, Apostle to India, would recount his joy at seeing and knowing the risen Jesus himself. "My Lord and my God!" he would say. "My Lord and my God!"
